

Property Tax Announcements and Important Dates

Friday June 19th, 2026 an advertisement fee of $60 will be added to each delinquent bill if not paid on or before Thursday June 18th, 2026.

*Payments can be made online at www.cityofopelousas.com in office at the tellers' window or by mail. There no over the phone payments.

Thursday June 18th, 2026 registration will open for those that are interested in participating in the online auction, however, properties will not be visible until Sunday July 5th, 2026 which is the day the advertisement for delinquent properties will be published in the Eunice Newspaper.

Thursday July 16th, 2026 registration for online tax auction closes @ 12 noon.

*The website to register for the online tax auction is www.zeusauction.com which is also the tax auction website.

Thursday July 23rd, 2026 @ 10am the online auction will take place.

*The tax auction will begin promptly @10am and no one will be allowed to join once the auction begins.

*Please know that all properties listed may not be available on the day of auction because payments are still being made on delinquent accounts.

Property owners that are delinquent have until 07/22/2026 to make payments to avoid placement in the auction. The cutoff time for online payments will be 3pm., but you can still make your payment in office until 4:45pm.

On July 23, 2026 the day of tax auction no property tax payments will be allowed.

Once a property goes into a tax auction the amounts cannot be removed or reduced. There are no payment arrangements on property taxes. All tax bills must be paid in full.

*Contact the St. Landry Parish Assessors Office before August 2026 to update your mailing addresses and or make changes to ensure you receive your tax bill for the upcoming tax season.
